

Havushe Bunjaku - “99 Lule”

The purpose of this grant is to provide financial support for the project of "Seedlings and medicinal herbs" for "99 Lule".

Bunjaku Havushe established social cooperative "99 Lule" in Kishnicë, which deals with the cultivation, collection and processing of medicinal plants and fruit-scented healing. Havushe is the first woman in Kosovo that started a business of this kind and the flowers that collects, mobilizes more women to work in the flower picking and packing, and thus ensures some money for their families.

Placing the product on the market as natural tea "99 Lule" with logo and unique packing and approval of the product by consumers for Havushen is a great success in life.

Havushe also this year, was one of the winners of the competition for the "Green Business Ideas and Innovation 2015" which was arranged by us (FIQ)

She through her engagement approach aims to change the decision for women's businesses and activities of women and have no prejudices in society about the power of women.
