

Snowboard course - "Jump above"

Forum for Civic Initiatives (FIQ) supports another idea with a target, the emancipation of women through sport snowboard's, which is dominated by men in Kosovo, an initiative of the "TOKA".

TOKA been the principal organization focused on providing innovative educational programs of mostly young people, where participants learn through interactive activities.

The purpose of this project is that to instruct young girls for this sport, with the double aim:

1. Emancipation of their own, that will potentiate those to deal with this sport, also to whatever other challenge that is consider to be done only by the male.
2. Initiation of establishing girls in the sport of snowboard.

Focus Group is foreseen age group of girls from 12-14 years old. Girls also provided to be from Pristina, because it is easier to organize the selection of the girls and also submit sustainability of the project, enabling self-organization of parents after intensive course.

Girls who will be selected will have the option to learn this sport with internationally licensed instructors .Society from this initiative will benefit the girls' examples of capable and confident to do what they want and something that may eventually promote Kosovo in the future.
