

TEDxPrishtina 2015

Grants Program, since 2009, has been a valuable asset of the FIQ in support of initiatives that were aimed at strengthening and increasing civic participation.

FIQ through Grant Program and as an organization that values and supports innovation ideas, has decided to be a partner in the fourth edition with the TEDxPrishtina, an independent TED conference which will be held on 21 November 2015 Pristina.

TED is a nonprofit organization dedicated to the dissemination of ideas that change the world with multiple initiatives. TEDxPrishtina 2015 this edition will bring people of different profiles to share a TED experience nature, which will tell the stories of pioneers, innovators and inventors Kosovo on innovation in art, politics, government, science, and business in Kosovo.